

David J. Sellers

U.S. Navy

Chief Warrant Officer David Sellers, was in Naval Special Warfare who retired in 2022.

David graduated Wakulla High School in 1999 and went on to a brilliant Naval career serving in Seals, SWCC and combat crafts.

At the Naval Warfare College, he was an instructor and headed programs in Homeland Security, ICE teams and drug boats.

In 2009, he was commissioned aboard the USS New York (he is a plank owner).

His deployments included Yemen, Persian Gulf (Shock & Awe), Iraq Freedom, Enduring Freedom.

David also served his county by providing humanitarian aide during Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Harvey.

His other achievements included serving aboard the USS Harry Truman and the USS Arlington.